A. SB-2356 Slime Making and Cookies motion wave reading of bill

2nd

Q/A

- How many residents expected?

A: 25 or 30

- have approval from hds catering?

A: not yet

- what would happen to any extra slime or cookies?

A: Materials go to storage and cookies will be handed out to other residents

- slime containers can't be purchased with amazon business account

A: can update/change item

- how to keep cookies and slime separate

A: have separate slime table and cookie table

Discussion:

- good event, simple easy, and has food
- good event, slime and cookies is a good combination
- good event, likes slime idea
- good event , relaxing event for midterm week

motion to previous the question

B. SB-2357 Spring Terrarium Party

motion to wave reading

2nd

Q/A

- how many residents do you expect at the event?

A: 45 for sure, plus additional people.

- Why is the buffer $85?

A: prices were set in 2023 and not sure if any price changed occurred

- transportation for event, how will that work?

A: ask residents and have buses and taxis and no travel concerns from residents so far

- would you be paying for leftover aquariums?

A:Checking with advisor on that but business is tax exempt

Discussion

- POC, told them to put $85 buffer
- really like this event, terrariums are good for mental health and good amount of residents, and planned far in ahead
- good ideas with high interest in event from residents
- RA's has been passionate about event
- on website price is 16 so pricing numbers are accurate, not sure about buffer, wants more confirmation about residents how are going
- POI, what is a terrarium?
- POC, a glass container with plants and soil
- POI, can we send out a google form to residents to have more information about rough numbers and vote on it in two weeks?
- POC, can have it on emergency status to vote tonight or wait two weeks until next meeting
- two weeks seem fine since event is not until april
- really like the event and different idea and good for environment and educational

motion to end discussion
2nd

C. SB-2358 Mid-Semester Goodie Bags

Motion to wave reading
2nd

Q/A

- how will you handing out the goodie bags?

A: delivering them individually with personalization

- how are you advertising the study halls?

A: teams, newsletter and close the bag with note that has study hall information

- what are you going to do with any extra materials?

A: handout to other ras or resource room or used for tabling this semester

- gushers are included as a snack, do you have any gluten free or vegan options?

A: no not sure if any residents are gluten free or vegetarian , could change it out and send a poll to double check

- buffer just for delivery cost?

A: yes

Motion to end q/a 2nd from

Discussion

- fun event and like goodie bags idea
- good event and likes personalization of notes and left over supplies could be used for tabling
- good event and help people out, gushers do not contain gelatin
- really like bill, goodie bags are fidget toys and pencils and not just candy, study halls are a good way to socialize.
- unique bill and personalized and cute idea, engineering majors do be stressed

VII. OLD BUSINESS

A. SB-2351 Allison Hall 1NW Ski Trip

Discussion

- Cost is very high, the amount per person is around 190 and we usually do 15 to 25 person person, that isn't fair to other student orgs
- don't think of ASCSU funding while discussing this bill because they have not voted on it yet
- a lot of money on one bill, it definitely help out people but we need to set limits for other events
- POI, did they say/ suggest what we were paying for a part of the bill?
- POC, yes but since it's a combined event, there's a chance we pay for something without the students getting the full experience but it could have changed since last week.
- large amount for one event, and for one student to go that's equal to 60 students fees.
- agrees with everyone, 40 people and if one doesn't show up that's a lot of money wasted
- combining our thoughts basically 60 residents for one resident, not responsible if they show up, not feasible price
- there also cheaper options, ho down hill $30 for 2 hours and possible carpool options
- POC, Bill author is not interested in ho down hill
- Would it be possible to wait?
- POC, we could wait, but that doesn't change the price
- POC concerned around conflicts of interest
- POI can we offer the chance to amend the bill?
- POC, bill author wants to provide a particular experience
- understand the importance of the bill but there are cheaper options with same activities
